

Thank you very much.

Have you had a good time? We hope that we helped make this Luau celebration an enjoyable event.

For our final song, we'll pick up the tempo a great deal with a song whose original music and lyrics were written way back in the 1860s. But Tommy Dorsey's recording in 1938 brought it to audiences in the US, and it's been a great hit since.

This should get your feet to tapping. Here's our version of the "Hawaiian War Chant."
