

Thank you.

We're going to again switch the moods with a song that was composed in 1965 and became a great hit when it was recorded in the following year by the great Welsh singer, Tom Jones.

I'm sure you'll all remember this story about a person who awakes from a dream to discover his true circumstance. Here's _____ to tell us about "The Green, Green Grass Of Home."