

Thank you. How about that? Did you enjoy our tribute to the "First Lady Of Song?"

Our next selection is a song about a person who is frustrated by her/his loved one's indeciveness. It was written back in 1938, but the biggest hit version was recorded by the Ames Brothers in 1951 - remember those guys. Did you know that Ed Ames has a home here in Park City. He's now in his mid-eighties.

This song spent 20 weeks on the billboard charts in 1951. Here we go with our version of "Undecided."
