

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Tonight, we're again going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. And we'll be asking you some questions about the songs, so put on your thinking caps and let's get ready to rumble.

Our opening selection, "Orange Colored Sky" was a big Nat King Cole hit from 1950. It spent 13 weeks on the Billboard Chart back in those days.

We'll switch gears for our next selection. It's a waltz from the great Rogers and Hammerstein musical "State Fair" written back in 1945. Dick Haymes and others sang it in the production.

Here's _____ to tell us that "It's A Grand Night For Singing."
