

Thank you. Thank you very much. For our last TV theme, we'd like you to recall one of the most famous cowboy movie stars of all time. In fact, he was called the "King of the Cowboys." Both he and his wife co-starred in many movies, and then they extended their career to television. Anyone have a guess as to whom I'm talking about? Right - Roy Rogers. His wife's name? Right - Dale Evans. His horse's name - Trigger.

Here's the theme from his TV show - "The Roy Rogers Show."
