

Thank you.

Now, here's a song that was composed in 1965 and became a great hit when it was recorded in the following year by the great Welsh singer, Tom Jones.

I'm sure you'll all remember this story about a person who awakes from a dream to discover his true circumstance. Here's our version of a great recollection - the "The Green, Green Grass Of Home."