

Thank you. Thank you very much.

This next Latin selection is very appropriate for our Olympic Celebration. It was written way back in 1941 by Ary Barroso and tells the story of a man who fell in love down in Brazil, then left, and is yearning to be back there again with his true love. The title of the song - very simple - it's "Brazil."