

Thank you.

For our next selection, we'll go back to the year 1929 to a musical of the same title composed by the great Irving Berlin. It was inspired by a swanky New York hotel and describes the dress of the people who came to the hotel ballroom to dance there.

Here's _____ with our version of "Puttin' On The Ritz."