

Thank You.

For our song, we'll play a Latin American tune written way back in 1941 by Ary Barroso. It tells the story of a man who fell in love down in a South American country, then left, and is yearning to be back there again with his true love. Here is 'Brazil.'