Ladies and gentlemen, as we reach the conclusion of our festive journey, it's time to bask in the jubilation of the season with our closing song, 'Happy Holiday.'

Written by Irving Berlin, this is not just a song; it's a spirited celebration of the joy and camaraderie that define this magical time of year.

Imagine a room adorned with tinsel and lights, hearts aglow with holiday cheer, and a melody that invites you to dance into the warmth of togetherness.

So, let the infectious energy of 'Happy Holiday' wrap you in its festive embrace. As we bid you farewell, may this song linger in your hearts, echoing the joyous spirit of the season until we meet again. Happy holidays, everyone!
