

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's nice to see so many familiar faces here in the audience.

Tonight, we're again going to take a journey down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. Our opening number - "I Got Rhythm" - was written by George Gershwin in 1930.

Our next selection was a year earlier in 1929. The composers are really unknowns, but it's been sung and performed by a whole host of folks. The one I remember most was a cowboy star by the name of Gene Autry. Remember Gene?

Here we go with "When It's Springtime In The Rockies."
