

Thank you. Thank you very much. How're we doing? Are you enjoying your trip recalling the great hits of the 80s?

Each time we play for you, we like to feature the music of a great performer or performers from the past. Our featured artist was named the most awarded female artist of all time by Guinness World Records and has sold more than 200 million records worldwide. She was the only artist to have seven consecutive number-one singles on the Billboard charts in the 1980s. Her screen acting debut was in the film "The Bodyguard." Tragically, she died in 2012, accidentally drowning in her bathtub in her home in Beverly Hills. Who are we talking about? You got it - Whitney Houston.

For our first selection this afternoon/evening, we'll perform a song originally recorded by George Benson but really became a #1 song in 1986 after Whitney recorded it in 1984. It was written for the movie "The Greatest" about Mohammed Ali.

Here's _____ with our version of Whitney's great hit "Greatest Love Of All."
