

Thank you. That was kinda fun! Brings back great memories.

Now, we'll really go back into history for this next selection. It was written way back in 1908 for a musical entitled "The Three Twins." It has since become a standard, recorded by artists such as Julie London and Vic Damone.

Here's an invitation to you. Please "Cuddle Up A Little Closer, Lovey Mine."