

Thank you very much, and good afternoon. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Today, we're joining with you with a set of songs especially designed for the Wild West theme of this celebration. Our opening selection, which you probably recognized, was "Don't Fence Me In," written by Cole Porter and recorded by such artists as Roy Rogers and Bing Crosby.

Our next selection you'll remember from the TV series back in 1954 about the famous 19th century folk hero, David Crockett, known to his friends as Davey. Here's _____ to sing that theme song from the TV show - "The Ballad Of Davey Crockett."
