

Thank you.

We're really going to switch moods for our next song. It was written by George Gershwin back in 1935 for his opera Porgy & Bess. It is considered to be one of the finest songs that Gershwin ever wrote. Over 30,000 versions have been performed, and it's become a jazz classic, recorded by a whole host of musical artists.

Here's _____ to sing our version of George Gershwin's beautiful "Summertime."
