

Thank you.

Now, we've come to a time in the evening which is very special for me. Some of you may remember that my ancestors were born in a country in eastern Europe called Bohemia.

(Do Czech schtick)

The national dance of the Czech Republic is the polka, and we're gonna play one for you right now. This one is a song about the capital city of the Czech Republic. Anyone here know the name of the capital of the Czech Republic. Right - Prague! In Czech, it's "Praha," so here we go with the "Praha Polka."
