

Thank you very much.

Our next offering was written back in 1898 and made popular by the great Harry James, who chose it for his theme song. Frank Sinatra, along with Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters, also recorded it.

Here's _____ to tell us a tale about an Italian gondolier and his futile love affair with a lovely young lady in that great land. The name of the song - "Ciribiribin."