

Thank you.

Alright, all you rain-loving romantics!

We're about to take a musical stroll down memory lane with a song made famous by the legendary Dinah Washington.

This song is like a cozy umbrella in a shower of nostalgia. So, find a spot where you can hear the raindrops on the window as we serenade you with the rain-soaked charm of 'September in the Rain!'