

Good evening. We're happy to see all of you here.

We're the Mixed Nuts, and we're here to play for your listening enjoyment.

Tonight, we'd like to take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. Our opening number, "Bandstand Boogie," was the leadoff selection for one of the biggest musical shows on television - it ran for more than a quarter century, from 1952 through 1989. For most of that time it was hosted by Dick Clark. Do you remember it?

Our next selection was written by Cole Porter in 1956 and was introduced by Bing Crosby and Grace Kelly in the musical film "High Society." Here's _____ to sing about "True Love."
