

Thank you.

This next song was sung by our honorees often between their engagement and marriage. It was first recorded by Bobby Rydell in the album "I'd Do It Again" back in 1960, and has also been recorded by such artists as Dean Martin, Ray Conniff, and Al Martino.

The song title is an Italian word, "Volare", which means "to fly." So, let's fly off with our version as sung by _____.
"VOLARE"!
