

Thank you.

Alright, folks, buckle up for a bit of yuletide heartache, because our next song is a classic tune that's practically the blues on holiday.

Imagine this: a song made unforgettable by the King himself, Elvis Presley. It's like a bittersweet symphony that'll make you feel all the holiday emotions.

So, whether you need a tissue or a dance partner, grab it because here comes 'Blue Christmas,' the Elvis way!