

Thank you very much.

We'll switch the mood now to a song with a Latin beat written back in 1948. It's a love song that laments the fact that the singer's haunted heart won't let her be free and that ghost within her has captured her completely.

Here's _____ to tell us all about this distressing situation with our version of "Haunted Heart."