

Thank you. Did you enjoy the gospel songs? We hope that these selections have put you in the mood for this Easter season.

Our next song is one of the first “pop” songs I learned to play by ear on the piano. It’s formal title is “Has Anybody Seen My Gal,” but what’s the title you might know it by? (Response) That’s right - “Five Foot Two.” It was written back in 1925 in the days of the flapper girls.

Here’s our version of this great classic - “Five Foot Two.”
