

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Once again tonight, we're going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. Does anyone know the name of the first selection we played. Right - Hot Toddy. It was one of the songs in the library of Ralph Flanagan.

Our next selection was written in 1930 by the great Duke Ellington and has since been recorded by such greats as Ella Fitzgerald, Frank Sinatra, Louis Armstrong, Nat King Cole, and a whole host of others. Here's our version of "Mood Indigo."
