

Thank you very much.

Our next carol was written way back in 1739 and is a combination of efforts by Charles Wesley, George Whitefield, and Felix Mendelssohn. You all know this one, but, as usual, we'll give it a slightly different treatment. We hope you enjoy our version of "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing."