

Thank you. How was that? Isn't that a beautiful song?

Our next song was written by Jack Owens in 1948 after attending a luau in Laie, Hawaii. It's extremely popular and has been recorded by such artists as Bing Crosby, Don Ho, The Big Kahuna, and even Tiny Tim. Here's our version of "The Hukilau Song."