

Thank you very much.

This next selection is one of the best known and commonly sung winter songs in the world. Believe it or not, it was written way back in 1850 in Medford, Massachusetts, originally under the title of "One Horse Open Sleigh." Back in those days, it was common to adorn horses' harnesses with straps bearing bells as a way to avoid collisions at blind intersections. The rhythm of the tune mimics that of a trotting horse's bells.

Here we go with our version of that Christmas classic that you'll want to join us in singing - "Jingle Bells!"
