

Thank you.

We're going to head west for this next selection - way, way west to our newest state, Hawaii. It was written back in 1949 and recorded by artists such as Bing Crosby, Jimmy Buffett, Don Ho, and Bette Midler.

If you speak Hawaiian, you'll know that if you want to wish someone "Merry Christmas" in that language, what do you say? That's right, "Mele Kalikamaka."
