

Thank you very much.

Our next selection was written back in 1941 and originally titled “Carol Of The Drum.” It was first recorded by the Trapp Family Singers in 1955, but the most famous recording was by the Harry Simone Chorale in 1958. It’s been recorded several times since by a number of artists.

We’ve decided to give it an international flavor by adding a Latin beat. So, here we go with our arrangement of “The Little Drummer Boy.”

Enjoy!
