

Thank you. Thank you very much.

Our next selection is a sacred song, written way back in 1896 and Louie Armstrong made it into a nationally known pop-tune in the 1930s.

Anyone have a guess as to the name of the song? (Pause). Right. Here's King Louis' version of "When The Saints Go Marching In."