

Thank you.

Our next song was written in the same year as the one we just played - 1935. The composer was Cole Porter and the musical was "Jubilee." Later, it was featured in 2 Doris Day movies, "Lullaby Of Broadway" in 1951 and "Young At Heart" in 1954. Since then, it's been recorded by many artists, including Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra, Louis Armstrong, and Susan Hayward among others.

Here we go with a tale of a fortunate happenstance of life - "It Was Just One Of Those Things."
