

Thank you. Thank you very much.

We've had a great time playing for you in this celebration of the Roaring Twenties. Have you enjoyed yourselves? Great!

We're going to close our Roaring Twenties celebration with a swing number written back in 1926 and first recorded that year by the great Louis Armstrong. Later, it was recorded by the great bands of Bob Crosby, Lionel Hampton, and Woody Herman.

Get ready to swing out as we play our final selection this afternoon - "The Muskrat Ramble." Hit it!
