

Thank you.

For our next song, we'll pick up the pace just a bit with a song composed by Hoagy Carmichael that was a big hit for Kay Kyser in 1946 and nominated for best Original Song in the 1947 Academy Awards. It's a cowboy song about a young cowgirl and cowboy and their hopes for a bright future.

_____ and I will join our voices for this old favorite. Here's our version of "Old Buttermilk Sky." Enjoy!