

Thank you very much.

Our next selection is a traditional English Christmas carol of Cornish origin, first published in 1823. It's form is a bit unusual in that it consists of a musical phrase repeated twice, followed by a refrain which is a variation of that phrase. All three phrases end on the third of the scale.

Good news! You'll probably be able to sing along with us on this one. Here's our version of "The First Noel."
