

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Tonight, we're again going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. And we'll be asking you some questions about the songs, so put on your thinking caps and let's get ready to rumble.

Our opening selection, "I'm Just Wild About Harry" was written way back in 1921 for the show "Shuffle Along." Then, in 1948, it became the campaign song for which president? You're right - Harry Truman.

We'll switch gears for our next selection. It's a waltz that was written even earlier, back in 1903, but the lyrics weren't added until 1954. Billy Vaughn had the recording that reached #2 on the charts that year. Here's our version of "Melody Of Love."
