

Thank you. Thank you very much.

We'll pick up the tempo with our next selection. It was written back in 1930 by Rodgers and Hart for their musical "Evergreen." Fred Astaire later performed this number in the movie "Royal Wedding" using a revolving set, because he had to dance on the ceiling.

Here's our version of "Dancing On The Ceiling."