

Thank you very much.

Our next selection was written back in 1944 by Donald Gardner when he was teaching second-graders at a school in New York. That Christmas, he asked his class what they wanted for Christmas and noticed that almost all of the students had at least one front tooth missing as they answered in a lisp. Gardner wrote the song in 30 minutes.

So, here's _____ to tell us what she wants for Christmas. She may or may not lisp as she sings. Let's find out.

Enjoy!
