

Thank you. How are we doing? Are you enjoying your visit to the Nashville scene.

Now, we'll move forward in time to the year 1971 and a song written and sung by the great John Denver. Remember John? It was his signature song, certainly one of his most popular and achieving world-wide popularity.

Here we go with our arrangement of the classic "Country Roads."