

Thank you. Isn't that a great song?

Now, here's a song written back in 1943 and based on an English nursery rhyme. It's a nonsense song that talks about what female horses, female deer, and baby sheep eat. Does anyone know the title of this song? Right - Mairzy Doats. Sing along if you know the words.