

Thank you very much. We'll really shift gears with this next song. It was written back in 1946, but the most famous recording was by the great Tennessee Ernie Ford in 1955. It reached #1 on the charts that year and stayed #1 for 18 weeks. Wow!

Here we go with a pretty vivid description of the life of a coal miner back in those days. Get your pick and shovel going for our version of "Sixteen Tons."
