

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Tonight, we're again going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. And we'll be asking you some questions about the songs, so put on your thinking caps and let's get ready to rumble.

Our opening selection this evening - How High The Moon - was first featured in a 1940 Broadway Revue entitled "Two For The Show." It was recorded in that year by Benny Goodman, but probably the most famous recording was by Les Paul and Mary Ford. Do you remember those folks?

Now, here's a nice waltz for your enjoyment. It was written back in 1943 by the great composer, Alec Wilder, and was recorded by Peggy Lee among others.

Here's _____ to sing this beautiful waltz - While We're Young."
