

Thank you very much.

Our next song was written fairly recently - in 1962 - by Neil Sedaka, and it hit #1 on the billboard chart on August 11 of that year. It also became a great hit all over the world, with the words translated into several languages.

In 1975, Sedaka rerecorded it as a ballad, and that's the version we'll do for you now. _____ and I will join with our version of Neil Sedaka's lament - "Breakin' Up Is Hard To Do."
