

Thank you very much.

Our next song is from that great Broadway musical "My Fair Lady." It was originally performed by Rex Harrison in his role as Professor Higgins. Its title "I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face" would suggest that it has to be sung by a male. However, with some adjustments, we've retitled the song "I've Grown Accustomed To HIS Face" so that _____ might do the honors. We hope you'll enjoy this beautiful song.
