

Thank you.

Our next selection was written for a musical "Daddy Long Legs," which starred Fred Astaire in the leading role. The song playfully asks what happens when an irresistible force meets an immovable object - such as a relationship between a vivacious woman and an older, world-weary man. The most famous recording was by a trio of young sisters - The McGuire Sisters. Remember those gals?

Well, to answer the question of what happens, _____ tells us that "Something's Gotta Give."
