

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Tonight, we're again going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. And we'll be asking you some questions about the songs, so put on your thinking caps and let's get ready to rumble.

Our opening selection was "Margie." It was written way back in 1920 and named after the five-year-old daughter of Eddie Cantor.

Our next selection is a beautiful waltz about a beautiful city in Austria. It was composed back in 1914 by Rudolf Sieczynski, and it was featured in the Stanley Kubrick film "Eyes Wide Shut." Here we go with "Vienna, My City Of Dreams."

Enjoy!
