

Thank you. Well, we've certainly had a great time playing for you this evening. Have you enjoyed yourselves?

We opened our evening with a song made famous by Duke Ellington, and we're going to close with a song first recorded by the Duke in 1941. It's title is Spanish, and translated, it means "lost." The song refers to a resort town in the Florida Keys.

Here we go with Duke Ellington's hit - "Perdido."