

Good evening. We're so very glad to be back with you again. It's always a fun time for us when we come to play for you here.

Tonight, we're again going take you down memory lane and revisit some of the biggest hit songs from yesteryear. And we'll be asking you some questions about the songs, so put on your thinking caps and let's get ready to rumble.

Our opening selection, "Opus One," was written back in 1943 and was a big hit for the Tommy Dorsey orchestra in 1944.

We'll switch gears and play a great waltz for our next selection. It was written way back in 1913, but it achieved great popularity in 1948 when it was recorded seven times, by artists Bing Crosby, Margaret Whiting, Gracie Fields, Buddy Clark, Eddy Howard, Kate Smith, and Charlie Spivak.

Here's _____ to inform us that "Now Is The Hour."
