

Thank You.

Alright, buckle up for some holiday fun!

Our next tune is 'All I Want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth.'

Now, rumor has it the Tooth Fairy is on standby for this one. After all, losing teeth might be a rite of passage, but singing about it? That's next level!

So, whether you're in the middle of a toothless grin or just appreciating the dental arts, let's jingle all the way through 'All I Want for Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth.' Because really, what's Christmas without a few laughs and a charming smile, or in this case, a charming gap?
