

Thank you. Thank you very much.

It's been our pleasure to join you in this evening of the Lindy Hop. We hope you've had a great time. With all the dancing you've done, you should sleep well tonight.

For our final selection, we'll go back to 1914 and the Lindy Hop era and a song that's been recorded hundreds of times. Get your dancing feet on for our version of "That's A Plenty."
