

Thank you very much. Are you enjoying our Christmas carols this evening?

We're rapidly coming to the end of this joyous evening. For our next-to-last selection, we'll present a carol whose lyrics were written by Willaim Chatterton Dix in 1865. The lyrics were subsequently set to the tune of "Greensleeves," a traditional English folksong. The melody has been described as "soulful, haunting, and beautiful."

Here's our soulful vocalist, _____, to ask this question: "What Child Is This."